France's Julian Alaphilippe wears the yellow jersey of the overall leader on the podium after completing the fourth stage of the Tour de France cycling race over 160.5 kilometers (99.7 miles) with start in Sisteron and finish in Orcieres-Merlette, southern France.

Slovenia's Primoz Roglic celebrates as he crosses the finish line to win the fourth stage of the Tour de France cycling race over 160.5 kilometers (99.7 miles) with start in Sisteron and finish in Orcieres-Merlette, southern France.

It will be difficult for Messi to remain with Barcelona, says his father

BARCELONA: It will be difficult for Lionel Messi to remain at Barcelona after he made public his desire to leave the Spanish club, his father and agent Jorge Messi said on Wednesday as he arrived in the city to negotiate his son's future.

After flying in on a private jet, Jorge Messi is expected to meet club president Josep Maria Bartomeu later on Wednesday to discuss his son's future. Spanish media reported a club spokesman declined to comment.

The six-time world player of the year insists he has a clause in his contract that allows him to leave on a free transfer - a claim disputed by Barcelona and La Liga, who say the Argentine can only leave if a rival club is willing to pay a 700 million euro ($830.20 million) buyout clause. "I don't know, I know nothing," Messi's father told Spanish TV channel Cuatro when asked if the 33-year-old would leave the only club he has played for professionally. But when pressed if it would be here for him to remain, he said "yes". And asked how he sees Messi's future at Barcelona, he replied

"difficult, difficult."

He dodged questions on whether Manchester City would be a good option for his son. A move to Manchester City would allow Messi to link up with his former Barcelona coach Pep Guardiola. "I don't know, there's nothing yet," he said, adding he had not had any discussions with Guardiola, who enjoyed trophy-laden years as Barcelona's manager with Messi in his pomp.

Messi did not show up on Monday for the first training session of the season under new coach Ronald Koeman.

Sumit Nagal becomes first Indian to win a Grand Slam singles match in 7 years

PUNE: "To be honest, I am just chilling, doing my stuff, eating food and watching some videos on Youtube." That's Sumit Nagal, trying to play it down after recording the biggest win of his career so far. The 23-year-old Indian clinched his first win in a Grand Slam when he beat American Bradley Klahn 6-1, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1 in the first round of the US Open in New York on Tuesday. "It's time to relax, but the feeling was definitely different when I was at the courts. It was kinda tense," the India No. 1 added.

Returning to the venue where he hit the headlines by taking a set off the legendary Roger Federer last year, Nagal needed two hours and 12 minutes to wrap up his victory on Court 12. My first Slam win. It was definitely a special moment and a match I will not forget. Thank you everyone for the sweet success is a face-off with World No. 3 Dominic Thiem, who advanced 7-6, 6-3 after his opponent Jaime Munar of Spain retired with a knee injury he suffered in the second set. "I am ready and excited to play him (Thiem).

NHAI debar Sohna elevated road contractor from future bids

Gurugram, The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) has debarred the contractor of the Sohna elevated road project from participating in any future bids — whether directly or through joint venture — involving major structural works. The disciplinary action has been taken following the collapse of a span of the under-construction elevated road on August 22 between two piers opposite the Vipul Greens condominium on Sohna Road.

The NHAI said in a statement released on Thursday evening that action against the concessionaire, Rajiv Chowk-Sohna Highway Pvt Ltd and its promoters Oriental Structural Engineers Pvt Ltd, has been taken after the authority found the submission given by the company not satisfactory.

The NHAI said that following the collapse of span on the project, the concessionaire was issued a show-cause notice to explain on the violation of the obligations under the concession agreement. "The explanation furnished by the concessionaire was found to be unsatisfactory. Moreover, lapses were found in implementation of the safety measures/workmanship/adherence to construction methodologies/procedures, which were highlighted time and again to the contractor before the said incident. Therefore, it was established that concessionaire failed to discharge its obligation to construct a safe structure and to ensure the safety of the user and pedestrians on the previous occasions and during the accident as well," the NHAI stated. The authority further said that with immediate effect, the concessionaire has been debarred from participating in any NHAI bids involving major structural works until they demonstrate reliable construction methodologies/designs and adequate safety measures at sight; and demonstrate that such type of accident does not occur in other part of their works. A senior official of Oriental Structural Engineers Pvt.Ltd, when asked about the matter said that all directions issued by NHAI in this matter like barricading, deploying marshals and installing nets have been carried out. "Additional safeguards have been taken but we are not aware about the decision taken to debar the firm from future bids. We will take all steps to prevent such accidents in future," the official said on the condition of anonymity.

Diverted Ranchi Rajdhani carries single lady passenger after she refused to deboard Latehar, The New Delhi-Ranchi Rajdhani special train brought a single lady passenger to Ranchi in the wee hours on Friday, hours after every other passenger had deboarded the train—when it was stranded for several hours at Daltonganj station due to a sit-in protest on tracks—in favour of a bus ride to the destination city. The woman student refused to get down from the stranded train at Daltonganj railway station and board a bus to Ranchi—like every other passenger on the train—and instead chose to reach Ranchi several hours later once the train was allowed to resume its journey through a different route.

Uttar Pradesh weavers get Priyanka Gandhi and Akhilesh Yadav's support over power tariffs organization Biradarana Tanziem.

Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav tweeted to extend his support to the community. "Weavers are upset, but the government is unaware."

Above 5 lakh weavers are engaged in the making of famous Banarasi sarees, stoles and other clothes in the city and they claim the government move was burning a hole in their pocket.

A weaver said that it was impossible to pay hefty electricity bills amounting to Rs 2,500 or Rs 3,000 with an average monthly earning of Rs 8,000 while meeting expenses of one's family. The striking weavers' group have decided to send work between September 1 and 15. The effect of the strike was visible everywhere with powerlooms in all localities remaining closed. The community has decided to form a human chain and stage demonstrations from Friday.

Top members of the Tanziem, Maqbool Hasan and Ishrat Usmani said the strike would be intensified further if the government does not accept their demands.

Weavers from across the state will collectively apply to get their electricity lines disconnected. Social worker and master weaver Mateen Kaifee said: "Under the flat rate scheme, Rs 145 each was fixed for every powerloom. But now weavers are made to pay per unit of consumed electricity every month. For example, if a powerloom consumes 300 units, the weaver will have to pay the bill for all 300 units." He added that in the new arrangement, on consumption of 120 units by a half to one horse power motor-operated powerloom, the weaver will get a monthly subsidy of Rs 350 and Rs 240 respectively.

Varanasi, Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi and Samajwadi Party president Akhilesh Yadav have accused the Uttar Pradesh government of ignoring weavers' demand for restoration of power subsidy for power looms run by the community in the state and not helping them bide over the difficulties faced during the lockdown.

"Weavers from all over Uttar Pradesh, including Varanasi are currently facing a terrible crisis. The government has neither heard them on the issue of electricity bills nor has it helped them to overcome the crisis that has arisen from the lockdown. Weavers, who illuminated UP's name across the world through their skill and art, are forced to go on strike today. The government should listen to the demands of the weavers," said Gandhi in a post on her Facebook account.

The UP government, in January this year, ended the flat electricity rate regime for handlooms and directed them to pay according to power consumption. In protest, weavers in Varanasi launched a fortnightly strike on September 1 by stopping power looms to demand restoration of the fixed power tariff arrangement. The strike call was given by Uttar Pradesh Bunkar Mahasabha and Varanasi based

Lucknow man sets himself on fire at home, triggers blast

Lucknow, A man (35) allegedly immolated himself inside his house, leading to the compressor of his refrigerator exploding at Rajni Khand locality under the jurisdiction of Ashiana police station in Lucknow, police said. The incident took place early on Friday. Police said no other person was injured in the blast. Locals said the incident had triggered panic in their neighbourhood. They said the blast also damaged the window panes of adjoining houses. The blaze was contained after two fire tenders reached the spot, police added.

A preliminary investigation has revealed that the man set himself ablaze in his kitchen by lighting cooking gas, but the liquefied petroleum gas (LPG) cylinder there was found intact, said Beenu Singh, an assistant commissioner of police (ACP), cantonment, Lucknow. The deceased has left behind a note, blaming his family for his death by suicide. "The preliminary probe suggested multiple reasons behind his death by suicide. His wife had taken her life on July 27. The man, who was in the real estate business, was also going through an acute financial crisis," the ACP said.

"His parents had disowned him in 2010 for marrying against their wishes. He had been staying separately since then," the ACP added.
