ashrams and other buildings during last year's Prayagraj Kumbh in Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand government has decided to paint all such religious structures adjacent to Ganga in Haridwar in saffron colour for next year's Mahakumbh. Saffron and yellow colours will be used across the Kumbh mela zone in and around Har-Ki-Pauri area in Haridwar. Some ashrams, local priests and traders have already started colouring their religious structures in saffron and yellow. The Kumbh Mela administration, which had been dwelling on the move for quite some time, approached Akhadas, saints, pontiffs of ashrams-maths, traders and local people for more suggestions and cooperation in this regard. Haridwar-Roorkee Development Authority (HRDA) has already completed a survey of 150 buildings and structures from British era Damkoti Ganga canal regulator Bridge till Sarvanand Ghat, adjacent to Badrinath-Mana-Ghaziabad Highway-58. Kumbh Mela officer-in-charge Deepak Rawat has been pressing for one colour-look of the mela zone during the Mahakumbh for which he has been getting a good response from stakeholders.

FDC INTRODUCES STRONGER FAVIPIRAVIR DRUGS PIFLUand FAVENZA

pharma major, FDC Limited, today announced the launch of new strength variants of itsFavipiravir PiFLU brandsand Favenza, used to treat mild to moderate cases of COVID-19 in India.These prescriptiononly drugs will be available at all retail medical outlets and hospital pharmacies across the country, from 1st of November, 2020.

The 800mg version of the drugs will help reduce the number of tablets to be taken by any patient by 75%. Currently patients are required to take 18 pills on the first day followed by 8 tablets every day for the next 13 days.

Commenting on the development, Mr. Mayank Tikkha from FDC Limitedsaid. Post the launch of PiFLU and Favenza in August, we decided to work on reducing the patients by Day 15. (14-2)

Excited yet watchful of the future - DSP MF reveals Vision 20/20

Fund came up with an assessment concept "Vision 20/20" to envision the future of business. 20/20 in medical parlance refers to the sharpness of vision. DSP MF employed 3 lenses when evaluating the future of investee or potential investee businesses (and by extension, its funds that hold those businesses) bucketing it into high visibility, medium visibility and low visibility businesses. Personal mobility will see a trend with people in mid-high income brackets would prefer to buy cars/2 wheeler instead of using services like Uber/ Ola. The demand for second hand vehicles has picked up with a focus on low-budget, mass market vehicles. Similarly, there is a shift to online buying with many shopping apps and online

Ahmedabad, DSP Mutual demand.

Affordable housing could Affordable housing could see a pickup as the government is likely to focus on providing better living conditions to poor people. Work from Home could create disruption in rent seeking stories (REITs, Commercial Real Estate) and internet boom, benefitting telecom players. This could also translate into increased consumption of ready to eat packaged foods categories. Export driven pharma companies are well positioned to leverage the 'Self Reliant India' theme. Hand Hygiene products (Hand sanitizer/hand wash) have seen ~10x jump wash have seen ~10x Jump in penetration levels. Unavailability of social security, the high cost of healthcare and low penetration of protection policies in India may drive the demand for both medical and healthcare and medicines have seen a huge spike in demand for both medical and term-life insurance. (19-10) demand for both medical and

COVID-relief bursaries and scholarships for Indian students

Ahmdabad, Sturt Provider Code: 00005F. University has introduced Study Group's Direct attractive upfront discounts for Indian students through its bursary and scholarship payments. This will allow a significant reduction in course fees for its November 2020 intake. Students will also be eligible for a COVID-19 Student Relief bursary valued at AUD $2800 that can be coupled with other bursary and scholarship offers valuing up to AUD $10800. The Charles University Study Centres offers a two-year, 12 subject Masters Degrees with eligibility to apply for post study work rights along with 12-week post study internship and graduate placement opportunities. The internship is offered by Study Group Australia Pty Limited, who operate the Charles Sturt University Study Centres in Brisbane, Melbourne and Sydney under a service agreement with Charles Sturt University under CRICOS

Study Group's Director for Australia, Alex Chevrolle warmly welcomed the news and said: "We understand that this has been a uniquely challenging time for students and universities, but it is clear that Indian students remain committed to their aims of studying in Australia and the opportunities which come with that choice. Our partner Charles Sturt University has a long history of welcoming and supporting Indian students who go in to receive an excellent education at undergraduate postgraduate level, and beyond that into successful careers. These generous bursaries and scholarships will enable even more talented Indian students to take up that opportunity and I would encourage anyone hopeful of studying at Charles Sturt University Study Centres to seriously look into these options for November this year." Excited yet watchful of the future - DSP MF reveals Vision 20/20

Fund came up with an assessment concept "Vision 20/20" to envision the future of business. 20/20 in medical parlance refers to the sharpness of vision. DSP MF employed 3 lenses when evaluating the future of investee or potential investee businesses (and by extension, its funds that hold those businesses) bucketing it into high visibility, medium visibility and low visibility businesses. Personal mobility will see a trend with people in mid-high income brackets would prefer to buy cars/2 wheeler instead of using services like Uber/ Ola. The demand for second hand vehicles has picked up with a focus on low-budget, mass market vehicles. Similarly, there is a shift to online buying with many shopping apps and online

Ahmedabad, DSP Mutual demand. nd came up with an Affordable housing could see a pickup as the government is likely to focus on providing better living conditions to poor people. Work from Home could create disruption in rent seeking stories (REITs, Commercial Real Estate) and internet boom, benefitting telecom players. This could also translate into increased consumption of ready to eat packaged foods categories. Export driven pharma companies are well positioned to leverage the 'Self Reliant India' theme. Hand Hygiene products (Hand sanitizer/hand wash) have seen ~10x jump wash have seen ~10x Jump in penetration levels. Unavailability of social security, the high cost of healthcare and low penetration of protection policies in India may drive the demand for both medical and healthcare and medicines have seen a huge spike in demand for both medical and term-life insurance. COVID-relief bursaries and scholarships for Indian students

Ahmdabad, Sturt Provider Code: 00005F. University has introduced Study Group's Direct attractive upfront discounts for Indian students through its bursary and scholarship payments. This will allow a significant reduction in course fees for its November 2020 intake. Students will also be eligible for a COVID-19 Student Relief bursary valued at AUD $2800 that can be coupled with other bursary and scholarship offers valuing up to AUD $10800. The Charles University Study Centres offers a two-year, 12 subject Masters Degrees with eligibility to apply for post study work rights along with 12-week post study internship and graduate placement opportunities. The internship is offered by Study Group Australia Pty Limited, who operate the Charles Sturt University Study Centres in Brisbane, Melbourne and Sydney under a service agreement with Charles Sturt University under CRICOS

Study Group's Director for Australia, Alex Chevrolle warmly welcomed the news and said: "We understand that this has been a uniquely challenging time for students and universities, but it is clear that Indian students remain committed to their aims of studying in Australia and the opportunities which come with that choice. Our partner Charles Sturt University has a long history of welcoming and supporting Indian students who go in to receive an excellent education at undergraduate postgraduate level, and beyond that into successful careers. These generous bursaries and scholarships will enable even more talented Indian students to take up that opportunity and I would encourage anyone hopeful of studying at Charles Sturt University Study Centres to seriously look into these options for November this year."
