WESTERN RAILWAY'S MUMBAI DIVISION TAPS NEW TRANSPORTATION OF SUGAR & MOLASSES

Views of loading of molasses at Bardoli Goods Shed & other commodities in progress over Western Railway.

Ahmedabad, Western Railway's goods & parcel special trains have been continuously traversing across the country to keep the supply of essential commodities moving. In continuation to the consistent marketing efforts made by the Business Development Units (BDUs) of the Divisions have resulted in tapping into attracting new traffic of various types of commodities. In continuation to this, it is worthwhile to mention that the Mumbai Division has recently accomplished transportation of new commodities of Sugar and Molasses. These achievements have been made possible due to the valuable guidance, motivation & continuous monitoring by Shri Alok Kansal - General Manager of Western Railway. According to a press release issued by Shri Sumit Thakur - Chief Public Relations Officer of Western Railway, Western Railway has always been a pioneer in obtaining new traffic for its parcel special & goods trains & in the recent past several new commodities including chikoos & bananas have been successfully transported through its Kisan special & Parcel special trains. In continuation to this, the persistent initiatives by Mumbai Division has resulted in acquiring this new traffic. Till July 2021, two rakes of sugar have been loaded from Nandurbar Goods Shed which fetched a freight revenue of Rs. 82 lakhs. This is first ever loading of sugar from Nandurbar Goods Shed in the last 25 years. In the near future, two more rakes are expected to be loaded in upcoming months. In the month of July 2021, a rake of molasses was also loaded from Bardoli Goods Shed, fetching freight revenue of Rs. 75 Lakhs. The traffic has been recaptured after a gap of 5 years. The commodity has been transported to Odisha's Sukinda Road. Shri Thakur stated that from 1st April, 2021 to 2nd August, 2021, Western Railway has transported commodities weighing approx. 95 thousand tonnes through its 251 parcel special trains, which included agricultural produce, medicines, medical equipment, fish, milk etc. The revenue generated through this transportation, has been approx Rs. 32.38 crore. 62 Milk Special trains were run by Western Rly with a load of above 43 thousand tonnes and 100% utilization of the wagons. Similarly, 74 COVID-19 special parcel trains with a load of approx. 12400 tonnes were also run to transport essential commodities. In addition to this, 45 indented rakes carrying approx. 22000 tonnes were also run with 100% utilization. To help the farmers find new markets for their produce and for its economical and fast transportation, 70 Kisan Rails with a load of more than 17000 tonnes have also been run during this period from various divisions. During the period from 1st April to 2nd August, 2021 total 12907 rakes of goods trains have been run by WR and carried 28.12 million tonnes of essential commodities. 27041 freight trains were interchanged with other zonal railways, in which 13,542 trains were handed over and 13,499 trains were taken over at different interchange points. Shri Thakur further added that Business Development Units (BDUs) are in constant contact with the existing and probable freight customers to encourage them to transport their goods through railways with the incentives introduced by the Railway Board for quick, reliable, economical & bulk transportation of their goods.

Cops get SOS from Bodakdev hotel, find caller slashed

AHMEDABAD: A team of city police personnel rushed to a hotel in Bodakdev after they received a message from control room that three men were confined by miscreants in a room of the hotel. According to police sources, a man called up police control room and said that he and his three friends were confined by four men in their hotel room in Hotel Pride in the Bodakdev area. Cops reached there and asked the caller about the issue. The caller remained silent about the cops' query but his three friends, all from Bharuch, said that some drunk persons were in a room adjacent to theirs were drunk and had picked a fight with them. They told cops that they were not confined but as the drunk persons were abusing them, they told their friend to call up police control room. The police team, while inquiring into the case found that the caller who called cops was also drunk. Police first booked him under the charges of liquor prohibition act and then went to meet other four persons who were alleged to have confined the caller and his friends. Police found that the four men from Bharuch, a man from Vadodara and another from Mahuva in Bhavnagar were also drunk. Police also booked them under the charges of prohibition act and began an investigation.

6 held for assaulting, tansuring widow, man over affair

AHMEDABAD: Four men and two women were arrested in Gujarat's Sabarkantha district for allegedly tansuring a 30-year-old widow after accusing her of being in a relationship with a married man, police said on Monday. The incident took place in Sancheri village near Himmatnagar town, some 116 kilometres from here, on July 30 and the six accused were held on August 1, a day after an FIR was registered. Sub Inspector PP Jani of Gambhoi police station said. "Vadansinh Chauhan, Rajiji Chauhan, Kalusinh Chauhan, Rakeshsinh Chauhan, Surekha Chauhan and Sonal Chauhan were arrested for assaulting a woman with an intent to outrage her modesty, criminal intimidation and rioting. They had accused the victim of having an affair with a married man who has four children," Jani said. The victim, in her complaint, said a man who she knew and was married to the sister of the one of the accused, had offered her a lift on his motorcycle when she was returning after some bank related work on July 30. Four of the accused stopped them near Raigadh village and beat them up, and later took the duo to Sancheri where all six accused hit them and tansured the widow as well as the man who had offered her a lift, police said quoting the complaint. The incident took place in Sancheri village near Himmatnagar town, some 116 kilometres from here, on July 30 and the six accused were held on August 1, a day after an FIR was registered. Sub Inspector PP Jani of Gambhoi police station said

Three robbers nabbed in Valsad

Surat: Three robbers of a gang were arrested on Sunday by Valsad police. Two members were detained last week by the local crime branch, but one of them ended his life inside the bathroom of Nargol Marine police station while the other managed to escape from custody. Police said Ashwin Bhandari, Chiral Saptar and Shailesh Patel admitted that early in 2019, they were going to the house of Govind Bhandari in Seronda village. The gang seven had been conducting a heave of Govind's house for a month. However, their plan was foiled by the LCB Supts. Cops had seen a car, the registration plate of which was covered with dung, in Seronda, which made them suspicious. The robbers tried fleeing when they saw cops patrolling. However, Nitin Urade and Jyoti Chandra nabbed and handed over to Nargol Marine police station. A couple of hours later, police got information that the other gang members were noticed in the forest area of Umargam following which they launched a manhunt and took Chindra along with them. While Urade ended his life in the bathroom of the police station, Chindra managed to escape.
